

1 Eligibility

【Financial aid-requiring households (= Youhogo)】

① A person receiving welfare (Seikatsu hogo)

【Households needing financial aids to a certain extent (= Jun-youhogo)】

② A Person receiving Child Rearing Allowance (“Jido Fuyo Teate”, Allowance for Single-Parent Family)

※If your application for Child Rearing Allowance is currently being processed, the income test is required because you are deemed to be a person ③ below.

③ Other parents/ guardians (Those who need financial aids at the same level as above. See the table below for your reference.)

※Total household income of 2022 will be screened. Please refer to the following “Income Eligibility”.

[Reference] Income Eligibility 《Gross income (pre-tax income) is used for the table below.》

Household personnel	[Examples] Family members ※The income tests will be applied to all people living together.	The upper-limit amount of gross income (standard) (In principle, the total sum of income of each family member)
2 people	Mother (35 years old), Child (8 years old)	3,260,000 yen
3 people	Father (36 years old), Mother (34 years old), Child (10 years old)	4,050,000 yen
4 people	Father (42 years old), Mother (37 years old), Children (13 years old & 9 years old)	4,730,000 yen
5 people	Father (44 years old), Mother (40 years old), Children (13 years old, 10 years old & 5 years old)	5,010,000 yen
6 people	Father (45 years old), Mother (39 years old), Children (13 years old & 9 years old), Grandfather (72 years old), Grandmother (69 years old)	5,680,000 yen

◇ Income eligibility may vary depending on the age of members in a household. The above is just an example. Some cases may not be applied to this program even if their income is below the standard, or some cases may be applied even if their income is above the standard. Please apply for this program if possible when you are uncertain that you meet eligibility requirements. In principle, the annual income of the previous year will be screened.

< Household personnel whose income is subject to be screened >

◇ In principle, the annual income of family members living together, i.e. father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, and siblings of the said student will be screened.

※1 An income that students got through part-time jobs is not screened.

※2 The income of a person who is away from home for work and the income of a person who lives together without resident registration are subject to be screened.

◇ The income of those who have resident registration in the same address will be subject to an income test even if they do not actually live there.

◇ Even if the households are separated on the certificate of residence, the income of those who live in the same address will be subject to screening. However, another household/ a person lives together in your address will be screened as a financially different household if the city can determine that you don't share the same livelihood with this household/ a person (livelihood is physically different, i.e. two-family house and the like*). Please contact Educational Affairs Section for the details.
*Drawings and utility bill receipts of two households are required.

★ For households with sudden changes in financial situation ★

If your family income dropped drastically due to unemployment or illness, and you wish to be screened based on your current income (not based on income of the previous year), please contact Educational Affairs Section. We will explain about the required documents according to each case including Job Leaving Certificate and Income Certificate only if we can determine that your current financial situation would be eligible for this program through an interview.

2 Required Documents

- [Please submit all required documents to school your child is attending.]

【Requirements for all applicants】

(1) Application form of Financial Aid Program for School Children
(Please see an example entry for your reference and fill it out.)

(2) A photocopy of a pass book

- ※ An application form is provide at schools, Educational Affairs Section in the City Hall, and General Service Center in front of Funabashi Station (5th floor of FACE).
You can also download the form through the website of the City.

【Requirements for applicable persons only】

(3) FY2023 (Reiwa 5) Tax Certificate

(the certificate on the income of FY2022 (Reiwa 4))※

※ [The tax certificate mentioned in (3) above is required only for those who apply to 1 or 2 below:]

1. Those who moved into Funabashi after January 2, 2023
2. Those who are not registered in Funabashi (those who are away from home for work)

Notes: The document with gross income, salary income, total income, various incomes, the number of dependents, and various deductions is required. The other documents are not acceptable.

◇ Please obtain your tax certificate at the municipal office where you have the resident registration as of January 1, 2023.

※ The tax certificate of that year will be available from the beginning of June. Please contact the relevant municipality.

- Please be sure to submit the required documents by the deadline; otherwise the screening would be impossible.

Important

The eligibility screening will be conducted by using the taxation information of FY2023 (Reiwa5, i.e. the annual income of 2022).

We cannot conduct the eligibility screening if some of your family members haven't filed their tax yet. Even when you don't have an income last year (except for dependents), you need to file your taxes.

Please go through the procedures at City Tax Section, on the 2nd floor of the City Hall. (As for company workers, the companies usually file employees' tax instead so it is unnecessary to file their tax for themselves.)

- ◇ Inquiry about tax filing: City Tax Section TEL: 047-436-2214
