

【Payment Demand Form】

You have failed to pay your overdue National Health Insurance premium. Please use this payment demand form to pay your overdue premium at a bank, convenience store, etc., within the due date noted.

If you are having difficulty paying the entire amount at once, please come to the National Health Insurance Section (Funabashi City Hall 1F) to talk to us. A videophone translator will be available during payment consultations, so it is not necessary to understand Japanese.

How to read this payment demand form:

The image shows a Japanese payment demand form for National Health Insurance. Several fields are highlighted with blue callout boxes:

- Due date: please pay by this day. Points to the '指定期限' (Due Date) field.
- Amount you must pay. Points to the '納付額' (Amount to be paid) field.
- Code number: please state this number when making inquiries. Points to the '記号番号' (Code Number) field.
- Shows the fiscal year this notice covers. Points to the '年度' (Fiscal Year) field.
- Shows the month this notice covers. Points to the '期月' (Month) field.

The form includes a table for recording payment status:

期月	保険料	延滞金	期月	保険料	延滞金
	円	円		円	円
	円	円		円	円
	円	円		円	円
	円	円		円	円
	円	円		円	円

【Important notes】

- If you do not consult us about your overdue National Health Insurance premiums, you will be sent a payment demand form every year in January, April and September.
- If you fail to pay by the due date, you will be charged an overdue fee and your assets will be assessed and seized.
- When there are no special circumstances involved and you still fail to pay your premiums, you may be forced to return your insurance card.
