

【Overdue Payment Notice】

Our records indicate that you have not paid your National Health Insurance premium for the last month. Please use this overdue payment notice to make your payment at a bank, convenience store, etc., within the due date noted.

If you are having difficulty paying the entire amount at once, please come to the National Health Insurance Section (Funabashi City Hall 1F) to talk to us. A videophone translator will be available during payment consultations, so it is not necessary to understand Japanese.

How to read this overdue payment notice:

Due date: please pay by this day.

Amount you must pay.

Code number: please state this number when making inquiries.

The period this notice covers:
(3) fiscal year (4) month

【Important notes】

- If you continue to neglect paying your National Health Insurance premiums, you will be charged an overdue fee.
- Even if you have already made arrangements to pay in installments, please note that legally an overdue payment notice is required when someone does not pay their National Health Insurance premiums by the due date.
- If you make payments in accordance with the most recent payment consultation plan, there will be no problem.
